

It is the official policy of the Wisconsin Council of Trout Unlimited that neither it, nor its chapters, shall engage in stream restoration activities unless the projects shall be publicly accessible in perpetuity.

Exception to this policy may be made only in rare instances and only upon approval of the Wisconsin Council of Trout Unlimited.